

The History Mystery

SYNOPSIS:

The story of three present day kids or teens who time travel to meet their heroes as kids themselves. They wander through history and meet people who have had to fight for freedom and equality. Personal freedoms, the fight for women's right to vote, and racial equality are explored. "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men (and Women) are created equal..."

FLEXIBLE CAST SIZE, AGES 8-18

Jenny (Asian teen girl)	Sufferagetes (8-10 girls)
Marty (African-American teen boy)	Young Eleanor Roosevelt
Toni (Caucasian Teen girl)	Young Martin Luther King, Jr.
Steven (Nerdy high schooler)	Kevin (African American boy)
Sheila (high schooler)	Vanessa (African American girl)
Amy (high schooler)	Rosie (African American girl)
8-9 Additional high school kids	Jo (Caucasian Girl)
Young Ben Franklin	Sam (Caucasian Girl)
Young Wilbur Wright	Rita (Caucasian Girl)
Young Orville Wright	Patti (CaucasinGirl)
Young Laura Ingles	Voice of MLK's Mom (African American teen)
Suffragete Leader (Teen girl)	Lead Freedom Singer (teen girl)
Paula (Teen girl)	Back-up singers
	12-14 Swing Dancers

PROP LIST:

Books
Various notebook supplies
Back packs
Paper airplane
Kite
Helicopter toy
Slate
Bench
Suffragette Signs
Fence
Jacks
Ball for Jacks
Kickball
Vintage microphone
Locketts